Subject: BBNC meeting with OW next week in DC?

BBNC is meeting with the OW next week, Tiel Smith didn't tell me who they were working in DC to set the meeting up.
Palmer - have you heard about this?

Sounds like they are wanting to share some information they have been putting together which will come out formally the week after next. Information regarding the status of the Native Corporations, a poll that was taken in the region, projects, and other information they feel is important to share as EPA is putting together the assessment (whether or not a 404(c) action is taken).
